Mrs. Putnam Plays With Professionals With Professionals In Shaw Comedy Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Courtland Penfield will go to Hopewell Hall, Alexandria Bay, N. Y., early next month to remain until the end of September.

Children.

last night in the Longacre Theatre thousands of undernourished children had been at the St. Regis since returnmay rejoice. The occasion was an en- ing from the South, have gone to Ontertainment arranged by Mrs. Edward K. Breitung for the Mak for Children of America Fund, and the receipts were estimated at $6,000. There was a fash- have closed their house in New York enable audience, including more well and have gone to their place, in Westknown persons than might be expected when motor trips are so attractive. Herbert Rawlinson with his ukelele and serio-comic songs put the audience South. it once in good humor. Then came the second act of Oscar Wilde's "An Ideal dusband," played with excellent effect revor and Mr. Frances, the latter having the part of the Valet in the original cast. Mr. Paul Reimers sang some old French, Italian and Spanish songs, also "Didn't It Rain," a negro spiritual by Harry Burleigh, with Blair Neale at the Chief interest in the performance cen tred in the appearance of Mrs. James Lowell Putnam in Bernard Shaw's comedy, "How He Lied to Her Husband." Mrs. Putnam sustained her reputation as a clever amateur actress, and, with professional associates, played with the poise and assurance that come from long ractice. She had excellent support from ir. Reginald Mason as the Poet and Percival T. Moore as the Husband, both of the "Adam and Eva" company. She wore a striking gown of green nd gold brocade with emerald ornaments and a tiara of brilliants. The audience was most responsive, Mrs. before the curtains several times. After rie in France.

the act Mrs. Putnam expressed her thanks to the different players who had nided in the entertainment and thanked, the audience for their liberal patronage. Mesers. Rockwell and Fox gave a huprorous vaudeville sketch, and the last aumber was a series of dances by 'the Sakharoffs. Among those in the audience, were

and Mrs. Oliver Harriman Mrs. Martin, Mrs. A. Duer Irving, Mrs. J. George P. Meservy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harsen Rhoades, Mr. and Mrs. Rawson L. Wood, Mrs. William Heary Harrison. Mrs. L. Harrison Dulles, Brs. Harry H. Duryea, Mr. and Mrs. J. Theus Munds, Mrs. Dudley Olcott. Mrs. Charles A. Childs, Mrs. William 71, Sands, Mrs. William P. Douglas. 'Fr. M. Lawrence Keene, Mr. and Mrs. 'F', Egerton Webb, Miss Alice Van Rernselaer, Mrs. T. J. Oakley Rhinelander, Miss Elisabeth Marbury, Mrs. William H. Force, Miss Katherine Force, Mr. and Mrs. William Shepherd, Mr. at at Mrs. Ernest Harrah. Mrs. Richard Gambrill, Mr. A. M. Post Mitchell, Mr. Pard Mrs. F. Hurrall Hoff-man. Miss Julbina Cutting, Mr. Hamilton Fish, Jr.; Mr. Charles T. Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. Willard S. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Allen G. Wellman, Mrs. and Mrs. Preston Choson, Dr. and Mrs. Preston Satter white. Mr. Emery Pottle, Miss Ilsa Mrg.well, Mrs. Henry W. Munroe

id Migi Louise Munroe. Also, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Knox Bell Mr. James Lowell Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley, Mrs. William H. Hiret, Mrs. Adolf Ladenburg, Mrs. Heret Shipman, Mr. Emerson McMillin 3d. Frank Pollock, Mrs. Newell Tilton, and Mrs. Ira Barrows, Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Barber, Jewett, been living in Washington, is now at Mr. and Mrs. Donn Barber, Mr. E. the Doyle mansion, Salem, Mass. Coster Wilmerding, Mr. and Mrs. A. Delano Weekes, Hon. Alfred Anson, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Ormond G. Smith, Mrs. Charles Astor

Bristed and Mrs. Drexel Dahlgren. in advance of the entertainment dinters were given by Mrs. Breitung, Mrs. Herbert Shipman and Mr. Willard S. Brown. Later Mrs. Breitung entertained the players at supper.

RESORT NOTES.

White Sulphur Springs.

Dr. Thomas A. Le Breton, Ambassa dor from Argentina, arrived from Wash ington yesterday to join Mme. Le Breton and her party at the Greenbrier. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Callaway and party went to Elmhurst Farm for luncheon. Mr. John Francis Harris enter-tained friends at dinner at Kates Moun-

Hot Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Appleton Terry and Mr. H. Herman Westinghouse have ment of the University of the South, at arrived at the Homestead from New Mrs. Thomas D. Griffin and Miss R.

Thurmond have arrived by automobile from New York. Joseph Leiter and Mr. and Mrs. Cor-

Springs. and Mrs. Bedell H. Harned, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kierstede Hudson and Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Wood returned yeserday to New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar N. Wrightington started for Bo ton and Sir William Pugsley, Lieuten-ant Governor of New Brunswick, and Lady Pugsley for New York on their Way to St. Johns.

Baron and Baroness Rosenkrants gave a luncheon yesterday at Roseloe, ACTORS AID NEEDY SERBIANS.

Performance at Kriickerbocker Arranged by Miss Viola Allen. night under the patronage of Prince Research Alexander of Serbia, brought in about $5,000. The performance, which was closed and nearly the entire population tried to crowd into the small church. Was under the auspices of the National Burthday committee of the Serbian Child Welfare Association was crossed in the state of the Serbian Child

Welfare Association was crossed from the service of the Serbian Child

The interior of St. Peter's was lighted by thousands of incandescent bulbs and the other stage directors had arranged a bill of forty-two acts that kept candles, the flickering of which added fascinating beauty to the scene. The enormous pillars of the basilica were leaded to the service of the Serbian Child Welfare Association was crossed the state of the service of the Serbian Child Welfare Association was considered with priceless ancient colors. A benefit for the destitute of Serbia, Miss Viola Allen (Mrs. Duryea), who also took part attired in Serbian national

Ethel Barrymore, Miss Claire Eames, Jack Norworth, Walter Wolfe, Horace Sinclair, M. and Mme. Mendoza, George iassell, Miss Beatrice Herford, Mme. 1 Lubovska, W. C. Fields, Harry Plimmer. Obrad Djurin and the chorus from

Benefit for Summer Camps.

The University Settlement, which celefirst third of a century of social service, held a "theatre event" at the Libgiven for the benefit of the two sumat Tioronda, N. Y., and Cedar Grove,

A programme of vaudeville and drahatic numbers was presented through the cooperation of R. H. Burnside and the Lambs Club, Among those on the bill were Bert Levy, Velodia Vestoff, Bliss Virginia Futrelle, Selbini and Nash, Bleasdale and Brown, B. C. Hill-lam, Ray Raymond, Carl Gantvoort, Lillian Fitzgerald, Harrison Brockbank, Tom Lewis, Walter Law-

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Palmer Knapp Performance Earns $6,000 for will give a dinner and dance next Saturday night at the Piping Rock Club for her son, Mr. Archibald G. McIlwaine 2d. and his flancee, Miss Caroline Hicks Read, who will be married on 19. The wedding will take place at Hill Crest, the country place of the bride's mother, Mrs. William A. Read, in Purchase, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Blair, who their summer place in Oyster Bay,

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney bury, L. I.

Mr. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., has returned from a fishing trip in Mrs. Joseph Harriman, who came to usband," played with excellent effect New York for the marriage of Mrs. Miss Merie Maddern, Mr. Norman Ward Douglas to Mr. Williams P. Burden, has returned to Newport, R. I.

> Mrs. Douglas Robinson is at the Colony Club while her new house is being prepared for opening at No. 147 East Sixty-first street.

> Mn and Mrs. Joseph R. Truesdale went to their house at Westbury, L. I., on Saturday for the summer.

Mr. John Moffat of New York has been made a commander of the order of St. Sava of Serbia, for services to the Allies. He already had decorations from France, England and Belgium.

Mr. Reginald C. Vanderbilt returned to New York last night after passing Sunday at Sandy Point Farm, New-

Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Warren will not open their Newport villa this season, but will start June 3 to visit Putnam and her support being called their daughter, Countess Guy de Lastey-

Washington.

The Ambassador of Spain and Senora de Riano will entertain at luncheon at the embassy to-day in celebration of the birthday of King Alfonso.

The Ambassador of Peru and Senora de Pezet have as guests their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Washington Pezet. Senor Pezet will attend both the Republican and the Democratic national conventions.

The Minister of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes and Mme. Groultch gave a sup-

Mrs. James Hamilton Lewis returned Women at Genoa, to which she is a announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elsie B. Downing, to Mr. Donald Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Alexander of Cleveland.

At Other Places.

The marriage is announced of Miss Claire F. Brown, Wellesley, 1916, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Brown of Arlington, Mass., to Mr. Milton C. Paige, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Paige of Dorchester. The bridegroom is a graduate of Brown.

Miss Mary Moody, stater of the late Justice William Henry Moody, who has Winchester, Mass., announce the gagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Cummings, Wellesley, 1916, to Mr. Paul H. Buxton, Torrington, Conn.

DEAN MYERS WILL WED MISS HOBART

Associate Editor of "Churchman" Engaged.

EASTHAMPTON, L. I., May 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee Hobart of Easthampton and New York have announced the en gagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Jefferys Hobart, to the Very Rev. George B. Myers, dean of Holy Trinity Cathedral, Havana. Dean Myers is a native of Holly Springs, Miss, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Myers. is a graduate of the University of Mis-siraipi and of the theological departewanee, Tenn.

Miss Hobart is associate editor of the New York Churchman, a graduate of the Brearley School and of Bryn Mawr. om New York.

Mrs. Clarence Grey Griswold, Mrs. sionary subjects. Her father is presimely letter and Mr. and Mrs. Cordent of the Church Club of New York. nellus Vanderbilt, Jr., drove to Warm and her mother, Mrs. Marie B. J. Hobart, is the author of the St. Agnes Mystery Plays.

Their marriage will take place in the Easthampton.

TOWN HAS HOLIDAY AS MISS WEED WEDS

Noroton Stores Close for Philanthropist's Marriage.

Special to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD. STAMFORD, CORR., May 16.-Miss Bessie Weed of Noroton, daughter of the sie Weed of Noroton, daugster of the only by the past. It is a large past only by the past of the James Harvey Weed, was married eral centuries past. The interior of St. Peter's was lighted. The interior of St. Peter's was lighted the past of the Velfare Association, was arranged by the players in uniform joined the throng decorated with priceless ancient crimson

E. Anson, who took part in an interest-honor her. During the ceremony Mr. ing sketch with his wife (Mary Malle-Herbert Spencer Greims of New York) Others on the bill were Miss played selections on his Stradivarius tribune that attracted much attention ton, "Creole Fashion Plate," Lew Dockchantry of St. Thomas's Church of Miss Marion Haines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Haines of 330 Weat 192d street and Brewster. N. Y., to Mr. Merritt White Rundle, son of the late Anthony M. and Mrs. Rundle and grandson of Mr. Samuel H. Bundle of Danbury. of Mr. Samuel H. Rundle of Dandy Conn. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Wymer H. Waitt, as matron of honor; her niece, Miss Frances C. W. Waitt, as flower girl, and Misses Alexandrovia, Princess Joussouroff, Prince Theodore Alexandrovich and Ruth Nichols and Ruth Bomann, Mrs.

Rowland B. Haines and Miss Hughes as bridgermalds.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stires. A reception was held at the home of the bride's

Joan of Arc in the Pageant at Fordham

MISS SHANNON DALE, in the part of the peasant soldiers and lifting the siege on the Cathedral city of girl of Domremy, is shown on the white charger France. A crowd estimated at 20,000 witnessed the entering Rheims, after having routed the English picturesque procession.

ST. JOAN OF ARC IN FORDHAM PAGEANT

Continued from First Page

with holding the crowd from coming military bearing in civilian clothes, of further, knowing that anything else posited numerous floral wreaths at t The police contented themselves would have been impossible.

The great cast of actors followed the per last night for Rear Admiral William Raid across of large square to the F. Fullam, U. S. N. back of them were the mobs, hooting to New York yesterday. She will start and the public officials, in great pomp, for France on Wednesday and will at- led the way. Joan, in sheer white, tend the International Congress of prayed. They bound her to the post and touched a torch to the branches at her feet. Great clouds of yellow smoke Mr. and Mrs. Augustus C. Downing was very realistic. A priest thrust a ross through the flames and he girl

When it was over and the pageant anounced at an end, Archbishop Hayes, the pageant, and a special committee, parade, forming outside Westminster. It the Capitol that it is still alive and kickof which Frederick H. Tims was chairis a strange irony of fate. f the grand stand. man, was responsible for the development of the really beautiful celebration. Dr. Harold Beckett Gibbs arranged and directed the incidental music, and Mrs. Anna Daly Fallon, staged the folk lances. The reception commission in-cluded Victor J. Dowling and Elisabeth Marbury. In the stand with Archbishop Hayes were Gaston Leibert, the French Consul-General in New York; Rear Adniral John D. McDonald and Admiral Henry B. Wilson, Lieut.-Gen. Robert L. Bullard, former Gov. Glynn. Mgrs. Mooney, Dunn, Lavelle, Edwards, Chid-wick, Guinan, Carroll and McKenna.

Neither Gov. Smith nor Mayor Hylan was able to attend. an apotheosis was staged, in which the glorified Joan, surrounded by the children of St. Stephen's School, was shown. and the combined choirs and the children sang a series of glorious chants. The music for the parades and the band. Out in front of the stand occu-pled by the Archbishops a platoon of reterans of the old Sixty-ninth Infantry. that later became the 165th, was stationed. Inspector George Liebers and fifty policemen did their best with crowd that required the administrations of triple the number. Morgan J. O'Brien and Dr. George Frederick Kunz headed the man's recention committee.

CENTURIES OUTDONE Their marriage will take place in the early autumn in St. Luke's Church. IN VATICANCEREMONY in St. Peters.

Pope Presides at Canonization

By the Associated Press. ROME, May 16 .- The canonization Joan of Arc, the French national heroine, was celebrated by Pope Benedict this morning in St. Peter's. It was the greatest and most impressive function performed in the historic basilica not Further along there was a tribune for the Roman aristocracy, the Knights of Makta, headed by Count Lambertenghi, the diplomatic body accredited to the Holy See, and a special mission headed by Gabriel Hanotaux, sent by the French republic. The diplomatic follows: republic. The diplomatic tribune, which glittered with uniforms and decorations

Diego von Bergen, the German Am-bassador to the Vatican, made his first appearance at a function. He wore evening dress, in striking contrast to the gorgeous uniforms of the other diplomatic representatives. The Ministers of Chile Argentina and Brazil, with their wives; Count de Salis, British Minister to the Holy See, and M. Doulset, the Wilson of 12 West Tenth street announce the birth of a son at Chimney Corners, were among the 60,000 to 70,000 persons their country home in New Canaan, present at the canonization ceremonies. The Pontiff was received at the critical and the control of the street announce to the Holy See, and M. Doulset, the Wilson of 12 West Tenth street announce the birth of a son at Chimney Corners, were among the 60,000 to 70,000 persons present at the canonization ceremonies. The Pontiff was received at the critical and the control of the same and the control of the planet are the canonization of the same and the control of the planet area and the control of the planet area and discover their musical path alone. They be an possible to the Holy See, and M. Doulset, the Wilson of 12 West Tenth street announce the birth of a son at Chimney Corners, were among the 60,000 to 70,000 persons present at the canonization ceremonies. The Pontiff was received at the critical announce to the Holy See, and M. Doulset, the Wilson of 12 West Tenth street announce to the Holy See, and M. Doulset, the Wells. Harry C. Browne and an example to the control of the country of the country to the planet area and stant the chimney Control of the country of the countr the gorgeous uniforms of the other diplodel Val. Archeriest of St. Peter's, with the Vatican Chapter. The choir sans "Tu Es Petrus," will the faithful sank to their knees, but did not allow any details of the magnificent procession to pass unobserved.

Panis, May 16 .- All churches in Paris, from historic Notre Dame to the most humble chapel in the suburbs, celebrated the Maid, the crowd of spectators that long since had overflowed the grand stands until hundreds were lying on the ground at the edge of the field where pictures were singed broke the doned owing to the strike effervese'derly gentlemen and women in mourn in the Place St. Augustin and Place dinal Amette, Archbishop of Paris, who years abroad some time before she is t was attending the Rome celebration in become audible.

bonor of France's latest saint, Hishop Rotand Gosselin sang high mass beneath Kenne's charms are still as potent as standard in which the white and blue to Europe. In the screen version of Edcolors of Joan of Arc were entwined with | ward Sheldon's play in which Miss the flag of the third republic. first time a golden halo was placed about England she shows she has indeed the head of the statue of Joan of Arc. diently.

ciated at mass in the Church of the dressed in full pontificals, pronounced a street discontinuous description. From beyond the stand where the most distinguished guests sat a battery of mortars began roaring and a hundred bombs broke in roaring and a hundred bombs broke in the air over the campus. Out of the ensuing smoke there dropped parachutes which point stood the Saint Honore Gate, which gate of honor on the screen.

Miss Eldora Stanford in Sound Honore Gate, which gate of honor on the screen.

Miss Eldora Stanford in Sound Honore Gate, which gate of honor on the screen.

Miss Eldora Stanford in Sound Honore Gate, which gate of honor from which flags of France and America floated. Other parachutes bore the Papal flag and all these flags, as well as the British ambles of the flags as well as prayer. Many bemeaned the fact that par lag and all these dags, as well as parades were not allowed one elderly pen and link, are other features. British emblem, flew from the top man saying: "London celebrates the Another famous play that he 100,000 View Impressive age.

The culminating point in the celebra- orchestra. tion was a war pageant organized by the Catholic Women's League in the London's "The Sea Wolf" proves that form of a long procession throughout a picture without overemphasized stars the adjacent streets, preceded by the can win by merit of its story alone, of Arc as impersonated by a girl clad in shining armor mounted on a gray horse. The beautiful and impressive spectacle was witnessed by 100,000 persons.

Vaudeville Benefit Brings In $65,000

The National Vaudeville Artists again | the ocean. utdid themselves at their annual benefit chorus," and other numbers are a core their sick and insurance funds at outdid themselves at their annual beneal. Chorus," and other numbers are a for their sick and insurance funds at the Hippodrome last night. Not only did they present a bill of vaudevilie headliners which it would be hard '5 Miss Ethel Clayton in "A Lady in duplicate but they brought in receipts Love," a Paramount-Arteraft feature, of $65,000, surpassing last year's record, prepared by Miss Alice Eyton from a It seemed as if every one of the 10,000 members had bought tickets, for there who stood throughout the long pro-gramme could feel well repaid for deonly by the present Pontiff but for sevvoting their ankles so loyally to the cause, for R. H. Burnside, Pat Casey decorated with priceless ancient crimson with his songs and dances. James Bar-damask, and pictures of Joan of Arc ton, Irene Franklin and Burton Green, proposition "Should Dummies Wed" diss Viola Allen (Mrs. Duryea), who that attempted to crowd into the edifice. Iso took part attired in Serbian national in high esteem by her townspeople, who took the occasion of her marriage to took the occasion of her marriage to Anson, who took part in an interest-is sketch with his wife (Mary Maile-is Spencer Greims of New York in high esteem by Anson, who took part in an interest-is sketch with his wife (Mary Maile-is Spencer Greims of New York in high esteem by her townspeople, who is sketch with his wife (Mary Maile-is Spencer Greims of New York in high esteem by her townspeople, who is sketch with his wife (Mary Maile-is Spencer Greims of New York in high esteem by her townspeople, who is sketch with his wife (Mary Maile-is Spencer Greims of New York in high esteem by her townspeople, who is sketch with his wife (Mary Maile-is Spencer Greims of New York in high esteem by her townspeople, who is sketch with his wife (Mary Maile-is Spencer Greims of New York in high esteem by her townspeople, who is sketch with his wife (Mary Maile-is Spencer Greims of New York in high esteem by her townspeople, who is sketch with his wife (Mary Maile-is Spencer Greims of New York in high esteem by her townspeople, who were some of the glad children of the evening. Others were Miss Belic throne was erected, having a small throne was erected, having a small throne was erected, having a small tribune for the Papal family. Another tribune that attracted much attention to the wide and Burton Green, James J. Corbett and Billy B. Van, James J. Corbett and Jimmy Hussey were others who were some of the glad children of the evening. Others were Miss Belic Herbert Spencer Greims of New York and Billy B. Van, James J. Corbett and Jimmy Hussey were others who were some of the glad children of contained 140 descendants of the family stader, Ford Sisters, Miss Kitty Gordon, contained 140 descendants of the family stater, Ford Sisters, also Keith's Boy of Joan of Arc. These, belonging to all Miss Gertrude Hoffmann, Keith's Boy ranks of life and coming from all parts of Band, Charles Kirg, Lee Children, Victor Moore, Eddle Leonard, Louis Mann, met each other before.

Miss Stella Mayhaw, Will Morrissey. Announcement was made yesterday in the most part never for Moore, Eddle Leonard, Louis Mann, of the marriage last Saturday in the met each other before.

Further along there was a tribune for Miss Elizabeth Murray, Miss Grace, Nei-

AGED ACTORS ENTERTAINED. Daniel Frohman, Trustees and Friends Visit Home

After uncheon all assembled in the drawing room, where there was an entertainment arranged by Charles B. Wells. Harry C. Browne sang and leading, for assuredly they could not

Seen on Screen

Appears in 'Romance' and Has Lost None of Her Charms. -Other Pictures.

Nowadays if an actress long absenposited numerous floral wreaths at the the public in the flims to see if they are foot of the staffies of France's heroine still sure-fire. Miss Dorls Keane exem-At Notre Dame, in the absence of Car- this week, becoming visible after severa

H. Vanderbilt to English purchasers, who prior to this transaction had shied For the Keane acted for six years here and in the churchgoers worshipped gained in power to stir the emotions in at any American investments.

opera singer with the tender love for a young minister, her work is beautifully the grand stand.

The Catholic Actors Guild directed Joan of Arc holiday to-day with a great tried by time, "Shore Acres," proves at Duri

if its stage devices have lost their awe- ing for the unlimited colnage of free sil-JOAN'S CANONIZATION Herne's character of Cacle Ned being the chief personage. Miss Alice Lake's role is starred, but then this is feminist Spectacle in Westminster. Edward Connelly plays Mr. Republican National Conventual Spectacle in Westminster. Herne's celebrated part. It is a Metro suade Mr. Morton to accept The women in support of Karl Jorn, London, May 16.—The whole Catholic Miss Irene Williams, Wilfred Glenn, Miss scenes of devotion at the celebration today of the canonization of Joan of Arc an ambitious performance in English of at Westminster Cathedral. The thought the third act of "Lohengrin," seem to sands thronging the cathedral included have taken the bucolic feature so much sands thronging the cathedral included to be ready visitors from China, India, Russia and to beart they are reported to be ready other distant parts. The shrine of Joan to work in overalls on the producing distant parts. The shrine of Joan to work in overalls on the producing distant parts. The shrine of Joan to work in overalls on the producing distant parts. The shrine of Joan to work in overalls on the producing distant parts. The shrine of Joan to work in overalls on the producing distant parts. The shrine of Joan to work in overalls on the producing distant parts.

Mr. Morton was able out of his ample wealth to take up his residence in a folk dances was provided by Tom Clark s cathedral dignitaries in their robes with the help of a sensational collision band. Out in front of the stand occu- British and French officers escorted Joan between a steamer and a ferry boat. and heroine appear together in the ferryboat crash, and in having the Wolf go blind as the result of a fight with his brother, but the story is strong enough to stand the changes. Noah Beery has the proper London "grip" as the Wolf; Miss Mabel Julienne Scott, Tom Forman and Raymond Hat-ton stand out in the other pricipal roles, turn from France, he was a candidate for the United States Senate before and the seascapes almost immortalize

A male chorus sings "A Sailors'

It seemed as if every one of the 10,000 story by Harriet Ford and Caroline members had bought tickets, for there must have been almost that number Rialto as a convent girl who elopes jamming the big playhouse and occupy- with a man afterward convicted of hav-ing 1,200 seats on the stage. And those ing a wife and child already, but who finds the right bosom to nestle upon in de- the end. Harrison Ford presents that bosom manfully.

The orchestra plays "Capriccio Italian" and enhances its previous work in making the spelling of Tschaikowsky's name familiar. Emancul List and Miss

Grace Hoffman sing solos: "Impressions of Italy" show where Nittl got off, and a Sunshine comedy takes the syllogistic Thousand Smoken" so remarkable it might even find favor with Dr. Pease and Annette Hazelton. his cows and his positry. He also had at one time a mansion in Newport, and his town house was on Fifth evenue.

CZECHO-SLOVAKIAN SINGS.

Milo Luka, described on the programme na "Czecho-Slovakia's leading barytone," made his American debut yesterday afternoon in Carnegie Hall. A small and reflective audience listened to him while he proceeded resolutely through a programn e of twenty numbers. It con-tained operatic airs by Smetana, once a plain Bohemian, but now canonized as a Czecho-Slovak; songs by Dvorak, Daniel Frohman, the president, led Fibich and others, and folk songs, some the annual pligrimage to the Actors plum Home on Staten Island yesterday.

some in Slovak. Czecho-Slovakia is far away and its store. Many years afterward Morton remembered the love he had once had for the old college in Hanover, even though its halls were denied to him, 45 Years, Specializing in in Corporations. and he gave a very handsome gift whom also he was restined to unite later in financial undertakings which John Woodruff Simpson, senior part-

LEVI P. MORTON, 96, JOHN W. SIMPSON OF CITY BAR DIES

Practised Law Here More Than Continued from First Page.

DIES ON BIRTHDAY

Enters Boston Dry Goods Pirm.

When he was 25 years old the Han-these connections that Morton met a man of about his own age, with whom he struck up a warm friendship and with Banking House Established.

headed by Morton, Bliss & Co. embraced such noted banking establishments as Drexel, Morgan & Co., Jay Cooke & Co.,

Baring Bros. & Co. and N. M. Roths-

The credit of the United States Gov-

Morton's bank started this movement, but the syndicate which he formed suc-

its action the syndicate had saved the Government $70,000,006.

Entered Politics in 1876.

In 1886 a determined effort was mad-

Republican National Convention to per Morton the portfolio of the navy, but he preferred the alternative offer of Min-

When the new Minister arrived at his oost he found that the American Legation was established over a grocery store in a dingy street. Though no provision had been made by Congress for a more pretentious home for the legation.

handsome house, and he entertained ex-tensively. By his social activities and his charm of manner Morton did much to lend dignity to an office which had hitherto been made the subject of many contemptuous criticisms. It was during his occupancy of the post in Paris that Morton officially received in the name of his Government the Statue of Liberty.

The American Minister became a warm personal friend of Gambetta, who was at the head of the French Government in 1881 and this friendship continued until

In January, 1885, after Morton's rethe Republican caucus and opposed to William Evarts, who was chosen. A second time, in 1887, Morton allowed his friends to advance his name for the same honor, but Hiscock received

In the Republican convention which nominated Benjamin Harrison for President there was at first a strong senti-ment in favor of plaging Mohton's name at the head of the ticket. When the Indiana man was chosen to head the Republican ticket the New York banker's name was unanimously chosen for the nomination for Vice-President. He served his office from 1889 to 1893, then returned to take up his business in But Mr. Morton was not allowed to remain in private life long. The Republican party in New York nominated him for Governor, and he was elected serving the term of 1895-1896. It was during his incumbency that the Raines law, the Page school law and other im-

Mr. Morton was twice married. He married Miss Lucy Kimball in 1856, and

The body of David Kessler, actor and East Side shops for this purpose. Inter-ment will be in Washington Cemetery this afternoon.

illness of less than one month

the entire nominating vote.

Gambetta's death.

his residence in Paris.

hild & Sons.

to the college.

PATRON OF FINE ARTS

over merchant went to Boston and en-tered the dry goods firm of James M. Beebe & Co. Two years later he was Had What Is Said to Be Best Private Collection of Rotaken into the firm. It was while he had din's Sculpture.

were of tremendous profit. This young ner of the law firm of Simpson, Thacher man was Junius S. Morgan, who later & Bartiett and one of the most success-became the head of a great banking firm in London. rm in London.

In 1858 Morton was ready to enter yesterday at his home, 926 Fifth avenue, or triger fields. He came to New York at the age of 69.

Mr. Simpson was born in East Crast-rm of Morton & Grinnell, dry goods bury, Vt. He was graduated from Amhiddlemen. Business prospered until lerst College in 1871 and from the lerst College. Interment Greenwood Cemetery. larger fields. He came to New York at the age of 69. and became the senior member of the Mr. Simpson was born in East Crast-firm of Morton & Grinnell, dry goods bury, Vt. He was graduated from Ammiddlemen. Business prospered until herst College in 1871 and from the the civil war came with its raid upon Columbia Law School in 1873. After prac-credit and its paralysis of all trade, tising law for more than ten years he Morton's firm became involved in diffi-culties and it compounded with its Thomas Thacher and William M. Barcreditors 50 cents on the dollar. Several num on January 1, 1884. The firm was years later, after Morton had rehabilition with the firm was simpson, Thacher & Barnum tated his fortunes, he one day gave a dinner to which he invited all of the tirement, it became known as Simpson, men who had been the creditors of Thacher & Bartlett. Morton & Grinnell. Ender his plate each guest found a check covering the full amount of the indebtedness to which full amount of the indebtedness to which counsel he was closely associated with It was in 1863 that Mr. Morton he formation of many big corporations, including the American Smelting and Refining Company, the American Loco-motive Company, the Railway Stee achieved the aim which he had long put before him; he established the bank-Spring Company and the Braden Copper Company. He took an important part house of L. P. Morton & Co., with in the Hocking Valley Railroad cases. he friend of the Boston days, Junius Mr. Simpson was greatly interested n the fine arts and had a collection of

S. Morgan, as his partner. Six years later George Bliss became a member of paintings which included some the firm and the name was changed to best works of the old masters. He was a friend of Rodin, and was the owner of had established a partnership with Sir what is said to be probably the best John Rose, once Finance Minister of private collection of the sculptors art Canada, and the London banking house in existence. He retained an active in Morton. Rose & Co. opened. These terest in the affairs of Amherst, and two banks, working together, were was a life trustee of the institution. He argely responsible in making possible was also active in alumni activities. the resumption of specie payments in the In 1903 the honorary degree of L.L.D. United States after the close of the war. vas conferred upon him. syndicate formed for this purpose and

Besides his membership in the Ba Association, Mr. Simpson belonged to the Century, University, Groller, Players, Union League, Railroad and Mid-day clubs. He is survived by his wife who was Miss Kate Seney; a daughter, Miss Jean Walker Simpson; a mment was very low at the time that James G., and a sister, Mrs. Mary E essfully floated a large issue of 5 per ent. bonds, thus decreasing the rate of HARLEY T. PROCTER DIES IN 73D YEAR

interest on the mass of the Govern-ment's bonds. It was estimated that by Was Pioneer Soap Manufac-Morton's bank prospered. One of the notable financial achievements credited to it was the sale of $50.000,000 of New turer Before Retiring.

fork Central stock belonging to William Harley Thomas Procter, ploneer Amer can soap manufacturer and retire member of the Procter & Gamble Com pany, Cincinnati, makers of soap prod acts, died Saturday noon at his home, I East Fifty-second street, after a linger It was not until he had reached miding illness. He was in his seventy-third lle age that Morton entered political year. He is the brother of Col. William C. Procter, one of the Presidential cam paign managers for Major-Gen. Leonard

Mr. Procter was born in Cincinnati where he established the soap business in which in a few years he amassed fortune. After his marriage to Miss Mary E. Sanford of Cincinnati he came same district and he received a ma-jority that exceeded the whole vote of to New York to live. His interest, howof Massachusetts. He built a handsome summer villa in Williamstown twenty Morton called attention to his name by years ago, moving to Lenox ii 1908. his vigorous opposition to a bill provid- Until two years ago he hardly ever used rer. He made two speeches on the free silver question which attracted wide maintained there.

EX-GOV. GLENN FOUND DEAD. by the New York delegation at the Member of International Great place on the ticket with Garfield, but he Waterways Commission. refused the offer. As soon as he was elected President, Garfield offered Mr.

WINNIPEG, May 16 .- Robert B. Glenn former Governor of North Carolina member of the International Waterways Commission, Great found dead in bed at the Royal Alex-andria Hotel to-night. He was 66 years His home was at Winston-Salem

Robert Brodnax Glenn attained national prominence as Governor when, in 1907, he led his State in a fight against the United States District Court because of that body's declaration that a railroad rate law passed by the North Carolina Legislature and fixing rates within the State was invalid. As Governor he did not hesitate either to oppose the Southern Railroad, one of whose counsel he had been before election. Mr. Glenn was a teetotaller and widely known by his virulent oratory of the Anti-Saloon League type. LOST AND FOUND. DARK blue bag containing about $45 and key: liberal reward. Return BUSINESS GIRL, 85 West 163d st.

LOST, strayed or stolen at Sheepshead Bay Sunday, May 18, between 4 and 5 P. M. White and black female spaniel, answers to name Monte, two brown spots on eyes; lib-eral reward for information or return. E. HLOOMBERG, 421 East 21st st., Brooklyn. Tel. Fiathush 1200.

LOST-Tuesday evening, in taxi, between Hotel Marsellles and Eugenie's restaurant 48th st., Masonic ring, diamond in centre breast pin, old coronet gold; reward. Mrs. COATES, Hotel Mayseilles, 103d st., and

Broadway,

LOST-Saturday, a platinum and dlamone barpin, between 37th and 57th sts., 5th and textington avs. Liberal reward if returned to BLAIR EWING, 1181 Madison av. Lenox
336. LOST—Gold buttercup brooch, all leaves covered with small pearls, larger one in centre; lost Saturday morning 79th st. and Lexington av. Reward on delivery to MRS. STEVENSON, 156 East 79th st.

LOST-$100 reward, no questions asked, for the return of a diamond earring, weighing the return of a diamond earring, weighin 1 karat and 10 points, lost during the parad Tuesday, May 11. KAY TRIMMING CO. 540 6th av. Gramercy 1365. LOST-About March 18 near Vanderbilt Ho-tel a flexible diamond bracelet with oval watch in diamond setting: reward. Beturn to CASHIER, Vanderbilt Hotel. law, the Page school.

After his retirement from Albany
Mr. Morton retired also from business.

Many of the later years of his life he
Many of the later years of his life he
Wednesday, probably Wannamaker's: general
Wednesday, probably Wannamaker's: general reward. Rhinelander 2991.

residence upon his estates tare. During the time that he lived here he spent the greater part of his time on his large estate, Ellersile, near Rhine-cliff, taking a great deal of pride in LOST-Beaded bag on bench, Riverside Driv and 83d at.; liberal reward, Columbu LOST-Small male poodle, Sunday evening married Miss Lucy Kimball in 1856, and two years after her death in 1871 he married Miss Anna Livingston Street. By his first wife he had no children. H. & B. H. WEINBERG, 665 5th av.

By his first wite he had no children.

Five daughters were born to him by his second. They were Edith, Lena, Helen, Alice and Mary. Their mother died at Rhinecliff on August 14, 1918, after an kern continuous alternating; lost May Rhinecliff on August 14, 1918, after an kern continuous alternating; lost May Rhinecliff on August 14, 1918, after an kern continuous alternating; lost Marcus & CO., 5th av. and 45th st.

MARRIED.

The body of David Kessler, actor and theatrical director, lay in state yesterday at the Hebrew Actors' Club, 108 Second avenue, and hundreds of his friends filed past the coffin as a final mark of respect. To-day the body will lie in the Second Avenue Theatre and will be viewed by thousands. A half holiday has been declared in many East Side shops for this purpose. Interment will be in Washington Cemetery this afternoon.

POWELL-KELLY.—At Rye, N. Y. on the 15th inst., F. Aubrey Powell, son of Evan Powell of Mapperley Hill. Nottingham. England, to Emily Raymond Kelly, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Raymond. Father Prunty officiated.

RUNDLE—HAINES.—On May 15. in the Chantry of St. Thomas's Church, by the Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Silves, Marion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pranklin Haines of New York, to Merritt White Rundle, son of the late Anthony M. and Mrs. Rundle and grandson of Mr. Samuel H. Rundle of Danbury, Conn.

DIED.

Arnstein, Junnuel N. McAleenan, Arthur, Cohen, Mirlam McElm, Robert A. Noonan, Curtis, H. Holbrook Davis, Celinea T. Dickinson, Patrick P. Barle, Thomas V. Palrebild, Helena R. Frocter, Harley T. Farzis, Edward V. Jr.Scullin, Mary Gillen, Calberine H. Johnston, Margarat M. Kelsey, Henry C. Klein, Mildred Mandell, Caroline, Marble, Suvan A. Marks, Abraham, Montague, Corg

In Memoriam. Abingdon, W. L. Tetus, George F., Brill, May Higham

Montague, Cora

ARNSTEIN.—At his nome, 562 West End av., on Sunday, May 16, 1920, after a short illness, Emanuel N., dearly beloved hus-band of Rac-K. Arnstein, in his 59th year. Funeral service at his late resi-dence on Tuesday, May 18, 1929, at 10 A. M. Kindly omit flowers.

COHEN.-Miriam Cohen, age 65, beloved wife of Philip, loving mother of Aaron, Abe, Frances, Eather, Sadie, Mrs. Arthur Rauchlenger (nee Hannah), May 14, Fu-neral services Monday, 10 A. M., 71 West 115th st.

CURTIS—At the Wyoming, 853 7th av., in this city, on Friday, May 14, H. Holbrook Curtis, M. D., husband of Josephine Allen Curtis, in the 64th year of his agr. Funeral services at St. Thomas's Church, 5th av. and 55d st., on Monday, May 17, at 10 A. M. Interment at Watertown, Conn.

DAVIS.—On Friday, May 14, 1920, at her residence, 123 Lafayette av., Brooklyn, Celinea T. Davis, Funeral services will be held at the Lefferts Place Chapel, 86 Lefferts place, near Grand av., on Monday, May 17, at 3:30 P. M.

DICKINSON.—On May 16, at his residence, 125 East 86th st., Patrick F., beloved hus-hand of Elizabeth Mullen Dickinson and father of John, Florence and Mrs. Mary Carroll. Time later. Please omit flowers. EARLE —At Montclair, N. J., Sunday morning, May 18, 1950. Thomas Vredenberg, son of the late Robert Buloid and Mary A. Earle, in the 80th year of his age. Funeral services will be held in the Old First Presbyterian Church, at the centre, Monday night at 8 o'clock. Jersey City papers please copy.

FAIRCHILD.—On May 16, 1920, at her resit dence, in New York city, Helena Ruthert furd Fairchild, only daughter of Charlotte Livingston and the late John Ruthefurdof New Jerrey and wife of Henjamin T.
Fairchild. Funeral services will be held at Trinity Chapel, West 25th st., New York city, on Wednesday, May 19, at 10 o'clock A. M. It is earnestly requested that no flowers be sent. ARGIS.—Suddenly, at New Orleans, La., on Sunday, May 16, Edward V. Fargis, Jr., of 348 West 23d st., New York city. No-tice of funeral hereafter.

All LEN.—On May 15, Catherine Higgins, beloved vife of the late Frank Gillen and loving mother of Anna and Mamie, and member of St. Hernard's Council, No. 1, C. W. 3, L. Funeral from her late residence, 241 West 12th st., Tuesday, May 18, to 8t. Bernard's Church, West 14th st., where a solemn mass of requiem will be celebrated at 10 A. M. Interment Calvary.

JOHNSTON.—May 16, Margaret M. Johnston. Services Stephen Merritt's Harlem Chapel, 304 West 126th st., Monday, 4 P. M. KELSEY.-At Trenton, N. J., on the 14th inst., Henry C. Kelsey, aged 82 years. Services at the Trinity Episcopal Church, Trenton, N. J., on Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Interment at Newton, N. J.

KLEIN.—On May 16, after a brief illness, Mildred, beloved daughter of David and Hannah Klein, Funeral from her late residence, 3671 Broadway, Tuesday, May 18, at 10 A. M.

MANDELL.—Caroline, at Indianapolis, Ind., on May 13, in her 76th year, after linger-ing illness, wife of Kauffman Mandell and mother of Judith, Budd, Marie, Louis, Harry, Gus and Max. Funeral at the convenience of the family. MARBLE.—On Friday, May 14, Susan Antoinette, daughter of the late Joel and Nancy Chapin Marble and sister of the late Manion Marble, in the 83d year of the late Manion Marble, in the 83d year of the late Manion Marble, in the 83d year of the age.—Funeral Tuesday, May 18, at 10:45 A. M., from 8t. Matthew's Church, Bedford, N. Y., upon arrival of train leaving Grand Central 8:50 A. M., daylight saving time. Interment at Albany Rural Cemetery at convenience of family. MARKE.—Suddenly, on May 15, Abraham, beloved husband of the late Lizzle Marks and devoted father of Manton, Florence and the late lavid Marks. Funeral from his late residence, 1292 Madison av., Monday, May 17, at 10 A. M. Charam (N. Y.) papers please copy.

MONTAGUE.—Cora McEiwell, wife of Theo-dors Montagus, suddenly, Constantinople, Turkey, May 14. Notice of funeral ar-rangements later.

McALEENAN.—On May 15, 1920, Arthur, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mg-Aleenan, in his 25th year. Funeral ser-vices at Blessed Sacrament Church, Broadway and 71st st., May 15, at 10 A. M. Please omit flowers. McKIM.—Robert Albert, Friday, May 14, at his residence, 65 West 88th at., New York-city, in his 56th year. Funeral from 8t. Ignatius's Church, West kind av., 8tth st., Monday, May 17, at 10:30 A. M.

NOONAN.—(Nee Cunningham), 207 East 78th, Funeral from St. Jean Baptiste Church, 10 A. M., Monday. Interment Calvary Cemetery. PAGE —At his residence, 231 Warwick &v., South Orange, N. J., on May 16, 1926, Frederick Maxwell, son of Mr. and Mrs., F. West Page of East Orange, N. J., Fu-neral services private. Philadelphia papers please copy.

Interment private, at Woodlawn.

PECK.—On May 14, at the residence of her aon, Bayard L. Peck. 267 Henry st., Brooklyn, Anna Van Deusen Peck, daughter of the late Peter and Susan Livingston Van Deusen and widow of Hovace R. Peck, late of Hudson, N. Y. Funeral from the residence of her nephew, Charles Esselstyn, Rossman av., Hudson, N. Y., Monday afternoon, May 17, at 4 o'clock.

Monday afternoon, May 17, at 4 o'clock.

"INKNEY.—James Henry, May 16, age 79, beloved husband of Henrietta Swann, father of James Henry, Jr., C. Cotesworth and the late Frederick Haws Pinckney. Funeral services Grace Church, Jamaica, Tuesday, May 18, 2 P. M.

PROCTER.—On May 15, Harley Thomas Procter, at his residence in New York city. Funeral private, It is requested that no flowers be sent.

SCILLIN.—May 15, Mary Scullin, beloved.

that no flowers be sent.

SCULLIN.—May 15, Mary Scullin, beloved wife of Vincent Scullin. Funeral from the residence of her cousin, 236 East 48th st., Tuesday, May 18. Solemn requiem mass at St. Vincent Ferrer's Church, Lexington av. and 66th st., at 10 o'clock. ington av. John Woodruff Simpson, at his residence on Sunday, May 16. Funeral services at the Church of the Holy Com-munion, 6th av. and 20th st., on Tuesday morning, May 18, at 9:30 o'clock, Inter-ment private.

ment private.

SMITH.—At Port Chester, N. Y., May 14, 1920, William Banks Smith, in his 76th year. Fineral services at his late residence, 152 King st., on Tuesday, the 18th inst., at 1:30 P. M.

TERRY.—Suddenly, on May 15, at Andover, N. J., Abhie Cotton, wife of H. Francis Terry, D. D., pastor of the Baptist Church of the Redeemer, Brooklyn, N. Y. Funeral services at her late residence, 2304 Newkirk av., Brooklyn, on Monday, May 17, at 1 o'clock.

17, at 1 o'clock, VICHINS.—At Yonkers, on Saturday, May 15, 1920, William Archibald Wiggins, be-loved husband of Helen Kellock Wiggins, Funeral services at his late residence, 673. Palisade av., Yonkers, on Tuesday af-ternoon at 2:30. Interment at Mount Hope Cemetery.

Hope Cemetery.

WILLIAMS.—On Friday, May 14, 1920, Fred.
C. Williams, beloved husband of Harriet T. Williams and father of Carlton E. Williams. Funeral services will be held at the Lefferts Place Chapel, 86 Lefferts pl., near Grand av., Brooklyn, on Tuesday, May 18, at 8:30 P. M.

Tuesday, May 18, at 8:30 P. M. WOOLLEY.—On May 18, Michael J., husband of the late Margaret M. Woolley (net Doran). Funeral from the readence of his daughter, Mrs. Annie F. Brennan, 211 Union et., Brooklyn, on Wedneeday, May 19, at 8:30 A. M., thence to St. Stephen's R. C. Church, Hicks and Sunnit ats., where a solemn requiem mass with he celebrated for the repose of his soul. Interment Calvary Cemetery. Autocortege.

cortege.
WORMSER.—Resa E., beloved wife of Selemon Wormser and mother of Max E. and Louis Wormser, entered into rest Sunday,
May 16, Funeral Tuesday morning, May 18, from Hotel Ansonia at 10 o'clock.

IN MEMORIAM.

ABINGDON.-W. L. In affectionate remembrance of the kindest of husbands, who passed away May 17, 1918. Bijou. BRILL.-In loving memory of our dear sin-ter, May Higham Brill, died May 17, 1898. TETI'S.—In loving remembrance of my dear husband, George F. Tetus, who died May 17, 1918.